

Educational Sessions – Session 5

07:30-07:45 am	Influence of Female Sex Hormones on Burn Outcomes Kassandra Corona, BS, Research Medical Student, University of Texas Medical Branch - Galveston, Galveston, TX
07:45-08:00 am	Early Versus Delayed Skin Excision for Burns: A Comparison of Outcomes Giovanna De La Tejera, BSA, Medical Student, University of Texas Medical Branch - Galveston, Galveston, TX
08:00-08:15 am	Cutaneous Functional Units: Allocating OT Services &amp; Influencing Practice Grace Hartl, OT/s, Entry-Level Occupational Therapy Doctorate Student, Firefighters Regional Burn Center, Albany, NY
08:15-08:30 am	Burn Outcomes in Communities of Color: A Large Database Study Maria Haseem, BA, MS2, University of Texas Medical Branch - Galveston, Galveston, TX
08:30-08:45 am	Use Of Lateral Femoral Cutaneous Nerve Blocks By Landmark Technique Is Ineffective In Decreasing Narcotic Usage After Skin Graft Procedures Jordan Ingram, BS, Medical Student, USA Luteran Burn Center, Mobile, AL
08:45-09:00 am	Comparison of Suprathel(R) to Porcine Xenograft in the Treatment of Pediatric Partial Thickness Burns Kaylyn Pogson, MA, Medical Student, University of North Carolina Jaycee Burn Center, Chapel Hill, NC
09:00-09:15 am	YouTube as a Source of Information for Skin Graft Procedures Grant Torres, MS, Medical Student, University of Texas Medical Branch - Galveston, Galveston, TX
09:15-09:30 am	Estradiol Induces Immune Dysfunction and Reduced Wound Healing Rates After Tissue Injury Micah Willis, BS, Graduate Student, University of North Carolina Jaycee Burn Center, Durham, NC
09:30-10:15 am	Break, View Posters, Visit with Exhibitors – Prize Drawing Break sponsor: Sponsorship opportunity open Location: Exhibit hall

