

Educational Sessions – Session 8
10:00-10:15 am	Pain Management After Burn Injury Susan Currie, MSN, CCRN, Critical Care Nurse, University of Florida Shands Burn Center, Hawthorne, FL
10:15-10:30 am	How Implementation of Computerized Physician Order Entry (CPOE) Technology Served as a Quality Improvement Initiative to Enhance the Nurse’s Role in Fluid Resuscitation of Critically Ill Burn Patients Lynn Dowling, RN, MSN, Burn Clinical Educator, Joseph M. Still Burn Center, Augusta, GA
10:30-10:45 am	Managing Expertise: A Mindful Schedule Lisa Livingston, RN MSN, Clinical Nurse/Unit Orientation Program Coordinator, U.S. Army Institute of Surgical Research, Ft. Sam Houston, TX
10:45-11:00 am	From the Ground Up: Implementation of an Education Program in a New Comprehensive Burn Center Keisha ONeill, MSN, Clinical Practice Nurse Expert-Burn, Medical University of South Carolina Burn Center, Summerville, SC
11:00-11:15 am	Safety Event Review Conference (SERC) - Developing a Sustainable Process Improvement and Patient Safety Program at a Busy Burn Center Char-Norie Poteat, BSN RN-BC, Unit Nurse Manager - Progressive Burn Ward, University of North Carolina Jaycee Burn Center, Chapel Hill, NC
11:15-11:30 am	Mortality Benefit After Addition of Mid-Level Support in Burn Intensive Care Unit Jamie Hollowell, RN, MSN, ACNP-BC, Burn ICU Advanced Practice Provider Lead, University of North Carolina Jaycee Burn Center, Chapel Hill, NC
11:30-11:45 am	Fluid Resuscitation in Burn Patients with Critical Care: A Retrospective Chart Review Kimberly Brown-Maynell, NP, Staff Nurse, University of South Florida/Tampa General, Tampa, FL
11:45 am-12:00 pm	A Win from Pediatric Burn Nurses Creating a New Innovative Nursing Care Model Heather Howard, MSN, Pediatric Burn Program Manager, Medical University of South Carolina Burn Center, Charleston, SC
12:00 pm	Adjourn